Message from the 7th Int'l Conference Chair

It gives me immense pleasure to know about the 7th International Conference on “Global Peace through Emotional Literacy in Education and Psychology of Management” (WP-TEL-EMP 2017) to be scheduled on Nov. 25, 2017 at Kathmandu, Nepal. I hope that this International Conference will provide a space to examine the latest psychological trends in various perspectives of emotional literacy by Indian scholars and foreign scholars as well.

I believe in the pursuit of academic excellence with human values as consistently shown by World Without Anger and Global Peace Foundation and this spirit is embodied in the organization of academic programs like this. I hope that this conference will help the delegates to sharpen their skills.

I convey my best wishes for grand success of this academic eve.

Almora, India

Introduction:

We live in the midst of one of the greatest transitions in Earth's history. Humanity, having become a planetary force, is now shaping both its own future and the long-term future of millions of species of life. The ecological crisis and increasing poverty, population, hunger and violence are forcing man to inevitably face the realities of the human situation.

Environmental problems that threaten the future of the world and humanity became two of the most important matters in the new millennium. Man's greed and consumerist life-style lead to reckless exploitation of nature's resources threatening both biodiversity and human well-being.

Human values are eroding at a very fast rate resulting in a decline in the quality of life of earth's people. At the dawn of the new millennium, what is required most is „Emotional Intelligence & Peace Education for a holistic Sustainable development “in the 21st century'. Peace Education and Emotional Intelligence play an important role in building peace & harmony and for balancing development & earth sustainability in order to develop a globally sustainable society.

A central feature of our annual conference is to provide a forum to share and disseminate emerging knowledge, research and programs related to emotional intelligence, Positive Psychology, Mindfulness, transformative leadership and Peace Education in order to create a more peaceful planet in the 21st Century.

Goal of the Conference:

The primary goal of our international conference is to present and explore innovative approaches and practices in emotional intelligence research and professional practice. Guidelines for Article submission:

The WWA International Journal is the institutional publication of the WWA, a leading Non-governmental organization of Nepal working in the field of Peace Education and Emotional Intelligence. The articles submitted for publication in the WWA Journal should follow the style and instructions as given below:

- Articles must be empirical, or at least analytical scientific, or literature-review papers should be submitted. The articles should be related to Emotional Intelligence, Peace Education, Buddhism, Peace Psychology, Emotional Intelligence, Psychiatric, Human Development Management, and Peace through religious perspectives.
- The empirical article/papers should be structured as follows:
 1. Title of the Paper
 2. Abstract (limited to 150 words)
 3. Introduction/General Background (along with rationale of the study)
 4. Objective of the Study
 5. Statement of Issue (Problem) and Theoretical Framework.
 6. Literature Review (Conceptual and Past empirical studies): It may be included in the Parts of Introduction' or Statement of Issue'
 7. Research Methodology
 8. Data Analysis, Results and Discussions
 9. Conclusion(along with comparison with previous studies, if any) and future study needs, if any
 10. References (only those used in the paper text or context related)
- Submission of the article to the Review will be taken to imply that it represents not any previous published, but an original work, and it is not being considered elsewhere for publication, and that if accepted for publication it will not be published anywhere without the consent of the Editorial Board; however, the ideas and opinions expressed in the articles published in the Review are solely those of author(s).
- The authors should be responsible for the theme and the contents of articles in no way represent views and policies of the organization or that of the Editorial and editors.
- Key Formatting Issues:
 1. Software: This guide is intended primarily for those working with Microsoft Word 2003 or earlier. This software should be adequate for preparing the manuscript according to WWA guidelines, although there may be exceptions where the author intends to make use of images or illustrations in the text which need to be especially positioned. If Word cannot deal with such requirements, it is recommended that a desktop publishing software such as Pagemaker or Indesign be used. However, if Word or Rich Text Format files are not supplied, then the final submission must be in the Portable Document Format (pdf) and must constitute a single file to include any front matter supplied by us, i.e. any merging of files must be undertaken before the submission to WWA Research Department. In the case of photographs or portraits that need to be placed in a separate section please include these in a separate file, ensuring that images are labelled with captions that are consistently positioned and formatted. All in-text material must be included in the main files of the manuscript. WWA Research Department requires that the final submission be made either on disk or via email. It is the editor's responsibility to collect and organise all materials related to the book and present these as either a single document or a set of documents in a clearly marked order. Chapters from individual contributors will not be accepted.
 2. Document setup: The full physical page size including all margins will be 148mm x 210mm The five sets of margins

Header: 15mm,
Top of main body: 25mm
Bottom: 15mm

About Nepal & Historical Place:

Nepal is the birth land of Lord Buddha. Lumbini is hallowed ground as Shakyamuni Buddha was born here in southern Nepal more than twenty-five hundred years ago. As a sacred birthplace, it is an important pilgrimage site for Buddhists from around the globe.

Kathmandu is the largest city and capital of Nepal and the namesake of the Kathmandu Valley. The city is located in the northwestern part of Kathmandu Valley and it covers an area of 50.67 square kilometers. The city generally has a pleasant climate with comfortable warm days followed by the cool mornings and nights. Kathmandu's Tribhuvan International Airport is the largest and only international airport in Nepal.

The city's rich history is nearly 2000 years old, as inferred from an inscription in the valley. The ancient and refined traditional culture in Kathmandu, for that matter in the whole of Nepal, is an uninterrupted and exceptional meeting of the Hindu and Buddhist ethos practiced by its highly religious people. It has also embraced in its fold the cultural diversity provided by the other religions such as Jainism, Islam and Christianity. People of other religious beliefs also live in Kathmandu giving it a cosmopolitan culture.

Kathmandu valley has been described as "An Enormous Treasure House of Art and Sculptures". These treasures are made of wood, stone, metal and terracotta, and found in profusion in various temples, shrines, stupas, gompas, chaityas and palaces. Kathmandu is the best place to shop in Nepal for contemporary handicrafts, fashion clothing, great books, music or traditional souvenirs and curios.
