Call for Papers

The WWA international conference has gained world-wide recognition for its contribution to peace education, emotional intelligence, mental health, people management & cooperative research. For the forthcoming 11th International conference to be held on 21st and 22nd September 2024 on the auspicious occasion of the United Nations' International Day of Peace in Kathmandu, we solicit and invite research papers, review and conceptual papers, and case studies as well as concise thematic posters in a hybrid format: in presence or online. The papers and posters should relate to the theme and sub-themes that include, but are not limited to:

1. Emotional Intelligence and Peace
2. Positive Mental Health & Anger Management
3. Human Behaviour Management
4. Cooperative Management
5. Buddhism and Global Peace

Researchers and practitioners are solicited and invited to join this international platform that offers an opportunity to discuss, share and publish study findings and insights in the thematic areas. We look forward the meeting and interacting with scholars, researchers, practitioners, and policymakers from around the world in beautiful, historic capital city Kathmandu, Nepal.
